

Differences between the new and old versions of NSP Pro2

	Old version: Ver2.0.2	New version: Ver2.1.1
Support for Windows 11	Not supported	Supported
Maximum value for "Power recovery monitoring time"	120 seconds	600 seconds
Maximum value for "Shutdown delay time"	120 seconds	600 seconds
Initial setting for "Service stop at initial power failure detection"	Continue	Stop
"Shutdown delay time" behavior	Transition to shutdown after the specified time has elapsed or when the application is closed.	Immediate: Transition to shutdown after the specified time has elapsed or when the application is closed. Set time: Transition to shutdown after the specified time has elapsed.
Message Notifications	Notify in Session 0	Notify on the user's desktop
Audio notifications	Notify in Session 0	Notify on the user's desktop
"Programs to start at shutdown" behavior	Run in Session 0	Run on the user's desktop
Configurable COM port number	1 to 9	1 to 255
New features in Ver2.1.1
Behavior when battery voltage drops during AC operation	Low battery shutdown (during AC operation) Options: Shutdown / Continue (Previously, only the 'Shutdown' was available)

Please check the properties of Npnpsrv.exe to confirm the version you are using. If it shows 2.0.2.0, it corresponds to NSP Pro2 Ver2.0.2.

